

FILLED WITH CROWDS THAT THE POLICE COULD

NOT KEEP IN ORDER

The scene about the Republican Headquarters up to midnight last night was exciting. The police, a reserve of fifty, were kept busy clubbing the crowds from the neighborhood. Captain Reilly had fifty patrolmen in Sixth-ave., between Fourteenth-st. and Forty-second-st., and they were kept busy quieting little disturbances and dispersing crowds that gathered the police to keep order, and Mr. Stokes then had the police clear the building and close the doors.

A large force of Contractor Shanley's men is ex-fitting much better on the line of the Pennsylvania Railroad, near Brunswick-st., Jersey City, where it is work ostensibly strengthening the banks. It is surmise, however, that it has begun the preliminary work of elevating the tracks between Brunswick-st. and the station. The result of this movement would be numerous individual suits against the railroad company. No united action, as at first proposed, will be taken by the property owners of the neighborhood.

Toledo, Nov. 3.—"The Blade" to-day says that the following cities are a group of railroad magnates are for the purpose of considering a practical consolidation of the Wheeling and Lake Erie, the Dayton, Fox Wayne and Chicago, and the Cincinnati, Hamilton
